

$25 SUITS SATURDAY FOR $18.98

Such Values As You Never Hoped To Secure

This announcement coming as it does earlier by several weeks than is usual, and just at the beginning of Winter, is doubly important. For the many women who have delayed purchasing a suit because of the mildness of the past weeks, this sale offers an unequalled opportunity at this most fortunate time. Little need be said of style and workmanship. Our high standard of quality and correct interpretation of fashion is well known. Buy now, before the Holiday rush.

Suits in all the Newest, most Fashionable Weaves.

Greatest Variety Stunning New Early Winter Styles

Price reductions heroic—bold—made solely to hurry heavy stocks out of the way before the Christmas rush sets in. A sale to throng our store with enthusiastic women who recognize a "good thing" when they see it. A final wind-up to record-breaking November Suit sales, representing, of course, the strongest values yet evidenced Suits in all the most favored late fall and early winter styles

Suits worth $10.00 for 7.48
Suits worth 12.50 for 9.89
Suits worth 15.00 for 11.98
Suits worth 20.00 for 17.98
Suits worth 22.50 for 17.98

We have just received a big shipment of Furs—Owing to the extreme mild weather we bought these at almost our own price. Cold weather is coming, buy them now.

PERSONAL NEWS OF THIS BUSY TOWN

County Commissioners meet next Monday.

Sheriff Blackwell is now on a salary under the new law; $1000 a year.

H. C. Duffy is in Brevard, where he has the plumbing contract for R. R. L. Norton's new residence.

Mrs. Jno. W. Moore, who has been seriously ill, is now recovering.

Miss Rex Davis, who has been so seriously ill that the services of a trained nurse were required during the past week, is improving. At one time Miss Davis' life was despaired of, but skillful medical attention and devoted nursing has put her on the road to recovery. Both Mr. and Mrs. Davis are also better and it is hoped they will soon be out again.

A. L. Homes has returned from Florida, where he left his father somewhat improved in health.

Mr. W. P. Mulkey, that clever auditor for Mr. John Carter's different enterprises, is wearing his left arm in a sling, the result of a severe attack of rheumatism.

Hunter's Pharmacy will soon have a modern, "iceless" fountain, one of the finest in this part of the state. The steadily increasing soda fountain business of this pharmacy has made the heavy investment necessary.

Rev. C. E. Hypes will conduct the regular services at Edneyville, next Sunday at 11 o'clock, and at Reedy Patch Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Col. S. V. Pickens, accompanied by Mrs. Pickens, left on Monday for Florida, where they will spend the Winter.

Rev. R. N. Willcox is expected home today (Thursday) from his business trip North. The usual services, conducted by Mr. Willcox, will be held at St. James next Sunday.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. C. H. T. Bly, on Sunday, a daughter. Both mother and child are doing well, as is Mr. Bly, also.

Chas. H. Singleton, the contractor, was in town Saturday, visiting his family. Mr. Singleton has a large contract in South Carolina.

Capt. Wofford writes from Florida that he sits on the porch of Mrs. King's Welaka Hotel, with his feet on the railing and watches the St. Johns River flowing by. The Captain says the fishing is good and he and Mrs. Wofford are well.

A possum in the tree in front of Edwards Hardware store, Friday, occupied the undivided and close attention of several members of the new organization here, "The Sons of Rest."

There will be a box supper given at the Horse Shoe school house on next Saturday night, to which everyone is invited.

The interest in that $50 prize, offered by the First National Bank for the biggest hog, is really remarkable. It will result in some wonderful hogs in this county next year. The Committee to handle the matter will soon be appointed.

Mrs. Hunt has leased Esmeralda Inn to J. H. Collins for the Winter.

The Wanteska Rebekah Lodge had a most enjoyable social time in their hall, Thanksgiving night. About eighty people enjoyed the excellent music, helped to consume twenty-eight pounds of taffy and had all kinds of fun out of the numerous games played.

Dr. L. B. Morse was in town Monday. There are now nine patients at Dr. Morse's Sanitarium at Chimney Rock.

George Justice left Saturday for Monk's Corner, S. C., where he has an extensive survey to make.

Mrs. C. C. Huguey, who has been so ill at the home of her mother, Mrs. RoBards, during the past seven weeks, is now steadily improving.

Mr. J. Williams has about perfected the organization of his new club, known as "The Sons of Rest." Anyone desiring to join would do well to see the genial ex-sheriff at once.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Reed have returned from Baltimore. Mr. Reed says Baltimore is a good town, but the sun shines brighter in Hendersonville.

G. M. Glazener went to Asheville, Monday.

The new station on the Southern railroad between Flat Rock and Zirconia, to be known as Tuexdo, will be open December 1. All trains will stop there.

Jno. T. Wilkins, of Calhoun-Wilkins, is confined to his home by a very severe cold which his many friends trust will develop into nothing more serious.

Capt. W. D. Miller, who has been very feeble of late, is improving, his many friends will be pleased to learn.

Henderson—Justice

The following handsomely engraved wedding invitations have been issued:

Mrs. Janie Elizabeth Henderson requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of her daughter Ethel Marie to

Mr. George Washington Justice on the evening of Thursday the ninth of December nineteen hundred and nine at half after seven o'clock
Baptist Church
Waterloo, South Carolina
Reception at eight o'clock

Oh, you egg beater!

Mrs. A. E. Posey, Miss Maidee Griffin and Miss Chewning spent Sunday in Tryon, the guests of Mrs. Foster.

The Henderson-Polk County Medical Society will meet at the court house, in Hendersonville, next Tuesday at 3:30 p.m. Election of officers and other important business makes the presence of all members desirable.

A. C. Morris is excavating and getting ready to erect a new store house, corner of Justice and Sixth avenue, west.

Little Miss Ruth Wetmur is receiving nicely from a recent minor operation, performed by Dr. Briggs at the Mission Hospital.

The teachers meeting at the court house Saturday was well attended.

Mr. C. F. White of Asheville was in town, Monday. Mr. White talks encouragingly of the Asheville—Greenville electric railway.

Mrs. Grant and daughter Miss Ada, will leave this week for Washington, D. C., to be gone all Winter.

A ROMANTIC WEDDING

The following account of the Piper-Perkins marriage is taken from the Morristown, (Tenn.) Republican:

"Mr. H. C. Perkins, of Greenville, Tenn., and Mrs. Ella Piper of Jonesboro, were quietly married at the home of Rev. S. E. Jones on last Monday morning at eleven o'clock, Rev. Jones officiating.

While it was not a "runaway match" the wedding has attached to it a touch of romance. Both of the contracting parties are well known in this section. Mr. Perkins is a prominent real estate man in his home town and is interested in a financial way in some of East Tennessee's growing industries.

The bride is a member of a prominent family and has a host of friends and relatives throughout East Tennessee. Mr. and Mrs. Perkins first met in Jonesboro, but Mrs. Perkins has been visiting friends in this city for several days past and when Mr. Perkins stopped over a day enroute home from a business trip to Virginia, where he formerly resided, they decided that "now was the opportune time" and after securing a license went to the home of Rev. Jones and were married.

Mr. and Mrs. Perkins are delighted with Morristown and may possibly locate here in the near future. They are both estimable people and will receive a cordial welcome from our citizens in case they decide to make Morristown their home."

TO EXCHANGE—A milk cow or mare or both for corn. See Dr. Brown.
